HISTORY
OF THE
GUTELIUS FAMILY

DESCENDANTS OF
Adam Frederick Gutelius

COMPILED BY
WILL B. GUTELIUS
BLUFFTON, INDIANA
1916

1702692DEDICATION*IN MEMORY OF*SARAH (SALLY) GUTELIUS GROVE.

The last surviving child of the family of Frederick A. and Anna Catherine Bistel Gutelius, who were parents of eleven sons and four daughters.

It was the writer's privilege to meet this saint in the fall of 1891, at Mifflinburg, Pa. In her then 80th year she knew of 443 descendants of Adam Frederick Gutelius. It is largely due her, that we are able to give the following history and this slight tribute to her memory is affectionately offered.

WILL B. GUTELIUS.

Bluffton, Wells County, Indiana.
June 1, 1916.

HISTORICAL

ADAM FREDERICK GUTELIUS.

The first of the name of which we have any record, was a Frenchman and was educated for an army surgeon, by the government under which he lived.

He was the father of John Peter Gutelius, who was the first GUTELIUS, to set his feet on American soil.

The date of his birth, death and history of his life, other than that of the above is unknown.

The descendants of Adam Frederick Gutelius cover a period of about 225 years and comprises eight generations.

JOHN PETER GUTELIUS.

Son of Adam Frederick Gutelius, was born in France, in the year 1708 and died at Manheim, Pennsylvania, September 29th, 1773, age 65 years. He came to the United States at an early, to us, an unknown date, but tradition says, that he sailed from Rotterdam, Holland on ship Nancy, (Thomas Compton, Master). He qualified at Philadelphia, Pa., August 31st, 1750. According to tradition 'tis said that he was a physician to the Queen of France and that he was banished from the country on account of marrying out of his station.

His wife's maiden name was Anna Maria Deitzler, she being of Holland descent. The earliest residence location known of the above ancestors was at Manheim, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, located 10 miles northwest of Lancaster, Pa.

They are buried in the Reformed Cemetery at Manheim, Pa., the location of his grave, being the first one back of the old church

A monument is erected to his memory and the following inscription, in German, translated reads:

Here Rests in God

JOHN PETER GUTELIUS

An eminent Surgeon and Physician

Born —————, 1708 Died: September 29th, 1773.

How many children were born to this union is not known, but a silent grave in the above cemetery, says one John Peter Gutelius, born in 1765. Another Frederick Adam Gutelius was born in 1766, who became the paternal ancestor of all the GUTELIUSES in the United States.

FREDERICK ADAM GUTELIUS.

Son of John Peter and Anna Maria Gutelius, was born in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, December 26th, 1766, and died at Mifflinburg, Pa., May 30th, 1839, age 72 years, 5 months and 4 days.

He was united in marriage to Anna Catherine Bistel, August 31st, 1790, who was born April 2nd, 1773 and died May 11th, 1838, age 65 years 1 month and 9 days. They moved to Mifflinburg, Pa., located about 65 miles northwest of Harrisburg, Pa., about the year 1800, using one two-horse team for transporting the household goods, while the family followed on foot.

They resided at the northeast corner of 5th and Green Streets, the property now being owned by his great grandson, Frederick Gutelius.

He was a blacksmith by trade and then studied surveying.

In 1813 he was elected one of the county commissioners of the new county of Union, upon its organization and in 1814 was appointed Esquire by Governor Thomas McKean. He did much surveying and conveying.

He was a member of the Reformed Church at Mifflinburg and for many years was treasurer and secretary of that church.

He and his wife are buried in the east end of the old cemetery, about 150 feet southwest of the old church.

They were parents of fifteen children, eleven sons and four daughters, as follows:

Elizabeth Gutelius, Born July 30th, 1791. Died———.

William Gutelius, Born October 17th, 1792. Died May 3rd., 1793.

William Gutelius, Born February 15th, 1794. Died February 10th, 1857.

Samuel Gutelius, Born October 22nd, 1795. Died July 9th, 1866.

John Frederick Gutelius, Born March 17th, 1797. Died February 13th, 1866.

John Peter Gutelius, Born November 21st, 1798.
Died July 16th, 1871.

Annie Catherine Gutelius, Born July 25th 1800. Died
March 23rd, 1884.

David Gutelius, Born January 3rd, 1802. Died
1879.

Israel Gutelius, Born October 30th, 1803. Died 1863.

Annie Maria Gutelius, Born March 17th, 1805. Died
April 4th, 1805.

Henry Gutelius, Born May 27th, 1806. Died
1879.

Andrew Gutelius, Born April 16th, 1808. Died September 5th, 1874.

Sarah Gutelius, Born January 4th, 1811. Died April 29th, 1892.

George Gutelius Born November 1st, 1812. Died
April 27th, 1889.

Joseph Gutelius, Born November 4th, 1815. Died
February 10th, 1866.

All the above children married and resided in Mifflinburg, Pa., with the exception of John Peter Gu-telius, David Gutelius and Annie Catherine Gutelius, who emigrated to Ohio.

There was no race suicide with this generation, as they were all heads of large families. This fact no doubt accounts for no great wealth being accumulated by either.

In personal appearance they were tall, straight,
rough boned, with the exception of a few who were stout.

Their education was in German, but they also acquired the English language.

This remarkable family was noted for patriotism and piety from its earliest existence. They were of a very religious temperment, of the Protestant faith, baptized
in their youth and received into the Reformed Church.

There are more persons bearing the name of GU-TELIUS in Mifflinburg, Pa., than any other name. The present generations living now reside in almost all parts of the United States, but especially the Eastern, Middle and Western States. They are not only confined to the United States, but are to be found in foreign lands, serving our blessed Saviour, Jesus Christ.

ELIZABETH GUTELIUS.

Eldest child and daughter of Frederick A. and Anna Catherine Bistel Gutelius, was born July 30th, 1791.
